D - 2c - MI↑

1. We've seen so much sad - ness when loved ones go on.
2. But one day all sad - ness will fade on the lee,
3. And soon the fair morn - ing will glow all a - round,

We've seen so much cry - ing and felt all a - lone.
To make room for glad - ness for you and for me,
With - out the fair sun - light up there shin - ing down.

We've seen e - ven hun - ger When souls do with - out.
When all of our trou - bles and trials of the road,
And sure, there'll be shout - ing when Je - sus ap - pears,

We've known dis - ap - point - ment, And oft - en known doubt.
Are gone as a va - por, In yon - der a - bode.
And sure, there'll be glad - ness Where once there were tears.
